Join Father Sean Charles Martin, president of Aquinas Institute of Theology in St. Louis, on Oct. 21, Nov. 18, Jan. 20, Feb. 17, Mar. 17, and May 19 to explore the thought of St. Paul the Difficult. Gene Guliano will once again facilitate a Wednesday morning Scripture Class, beginning September 26, from 9:00 am – 10:30 am in the Community Center, entitled, Those “Extra” Books in the Catholic

Bible: Why They Matter.

Most Catholics know that the Catholic Bible contains Old Testament books that are not included in the Protestant Bible. Perhaps we don't give these writings much thought except when the subject of the difference between the canons arises. Yet, most Christians agree that these books are valuable because they were written during the last two centuries before the birth of Christ. Therefore, they offer insight into Jewish history and thought shortly before and during the time of New Testament events, and thus provide important background to the New Testament. Fragments of these important texts can be found in the Dead Sea Scrolls, and they continue to impact our understanding of the Bible today. Join us and learn the special stories behind these books, which make the Catholic Bible unique and comprehensive. Please contact Linda Moses, lmoses@ctkdallas.org or 214-365-1203 to register.
