The Sacred Scriptures and Prophetic Voices of Advent

Sometimes we struggle to believe we'll experience anything new as Advent comes around. What could we possibly learn that we haven't seen or heard before? If you're looking for an Advent study of a different slant, join us as we approach the season from new perspectives. Facilitated by Gene Giuliano, we will probe the Scriptures of Advent and Christmas in new ways as you listen to the prophetic voices of Zachariah, Elizabeth, Mary, angels, Simeon, Anna, the Magi, and John the Baptist with new ears. Don't allow yourself to become indifferent to the unfathomable miracle of God's visit to our world. Join us Wednesday, December 5 through Wednesday, December 19 in the Community Center from 9:00am-10:30am during Advent. For more information or to register, please contact Linda Moses, Pastoral Associate, at lmoses@ctkdallas.org or 214-365-1203.

will celebrate with you and Christ the King for the 10th anniversary of our Christmas collaboration. Their original, and locally unique, repertory of Spanish language, and Old and New World provenance, is a refreshing opportunity to observe Christmas with the typically rhythmic, melodically attractive music of Hispanic origin, always with a bow to English language traditions. Product of years of research by Artistic Director Grover Wilkins III, and his colleagues in Mexico and Bolivia, this repertory deserves so much more attention than it has received over the centuries and into our day. Complimentary admission. Donations accepted.

If you have lost a loved one in death, please join us for Grief Support Group. We will explore Managing Grief During the Holidays.
