Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 8 & 9

Scripture and Hymn Texts Now Provided

During this time when we cannot use our missalettes or hymnals, we are providing those texts here in the Order of Mass. The scriptures are here for you to both follow and to take with you to contemplate during the week. Our hymns are chosen to enhance the scriptures. During our Masses, as the cantor sings for you, please follow the words provided here. In your minds connect them with the day's scripture readings and how they could apply to our world today. For now though, please do not sing. As circumstances change and evolve, we will respond according to the latest studies.

Organ Prelude

Gathering Hymn

Your hand, though hidden, guides us
By ways unseen, unknown,
Through all our restless searching
On paths we think our own.
With silent step you hasten
To meet us where we stray.
Then patiently you lead us
Along our pilgrim way.

Your hand, though hidden, holds us
When all support is gone,
When earth's best help is futile
And human strength undone.
Then, though the night close round us
And wind and wave assail,
You grasp us in the darkness
With love that does not fail.

Introductory Rites

Greeting
Penitential Act
Kyrie
Gloria

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9A, 11-13A

At the mountain of God, Horeb, Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter. Then the LORD said to him, "Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will be passing by." A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD—but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake—but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake there was fire—but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound.

When he heard this, Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 85

Lord, let us see your kindness,
and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what the LORD God speaks;
he speaks of peace for his people and his faithful.
His salvation is near for those who fear him,
and his glory will dwell in our land.
Merciful love and faithfulness have met;
justice and peace have kissed.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth,
and justice look down from heaven.
Also the LORD will bestow his bounty,
and our earth shall yield its increase.
Justice will march before him,
and guide his steps on the way.

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5

Brothers and sisters: I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie; my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites; theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; theirs the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, is the Christ, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for his word.

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, "Truly, you are the Son of God."

Offertory Hymn

Precious Lord, take my hand,
Lead me on, let me stand,
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn.
Through the storm through the night,
Lead me on to the light.

Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

When my way grows drear,
Precious Lord, linger near,
When my life is almost gone,
Hear my cry, hear my call,
Hold my hand lest I fall.

Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

When the darkness appears
And the night draws near,
And the day is past and gone,
At the river I stand,
Guide my feet, hold my hand.

Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

O Salutaris Hostia, Edward Elgar

O Saving Victim, opening wide the gate of heav'n to us below! Our foes press on from every side: Your aid supply, your strength bestow. To your great name be endless praise, Immortal God-head, One in Three; O grant us endless length of days when our true native land we see.

St. Thomas Aquinas

Communion Meditation Hymn

Calm to the waves. Calm to the wind.

Jesus whispers, "peace be still."

Balm to our hearts. Fears at an end.

In stillness, hear his voice.

Greeting and Final Blessing

Dismissal

Sending Hymn

"Fear not, I am with you, O be not dismayed,
For I am your God, and will still give you aid;
I'll strengthen you, help you, and cause you to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

When through the deep waters I call you to go,
The rivers of woe shall not you overflow;
For I will be with you, your troubles to bless,
And sanctify to you your deepest distress."
